

RESCUE SHIP WAS CLOSE BY

STEAMER REPORTED ONLY FIVE MILES FROM TITANIC.

New Phase of Tragic Disaster Brought Out by Evidence of Fourth Officer of Doomed Ship
Before Senate Committee—
Franklin Admits Too Few Life Boats Aboard Ship.

Washington, April 22.—With succor only five miles away, the Titanic slid into its watery grave, carrying with it more than 1,600 of its passengers and crew, while an unidentified steamer that might have saved all, failed or refused to see the frantic signals flashed to for aid. This phase of the tragic disaster was brought out to day before the senate investigating committee, when J. B. Boxhall, fourth officer of the Titanic, told of his unsuccessful attempts to attract the stranger's attention. This ship, according to Boxhall, could not have been more than five miles away and was steaming toward the Titanic.
So close was it that from the bridge Boxhall plainly saw its masthead lights and signal lights. Both with rockets and with the Morse electrical did the young officer hail the stranger. Captain Smith and several others in the vicinity of the bridge declared at the time their belief that the vessel had seen them and was signalling in reply. Boxhall failed to see the replies, however, and, in any case, the steamer kept on its course obliquely past the Titanic without extending aid.

Not Enough Life Boats.
This, and the declaration by P.
A. S. Franklin, vice president of the White Star Line, that there were not sufficient life boats aboard the Titanic to care for the ship's company at one time, were easily the features of the hearing. The official was quizzed throughout the morning session on the message exchanged between the Carpathia and himself after the ship had started for New York with the Titanic's survivors aboard. Among the survivors was J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the line.

Among the telegrams read into the records was one from Mr. Ismay urging that the steamship Car-pathia be held until the Carpathia arrived with its sorry burden. He declared he believed it most desirable that the survivors of the Titanic's crew be rushed out of the country as quickly as possible. He also, the message said, told the Carpathia and asked that clothing be ready at the pier for him when the Carpathia docked. The senate's subpoena blocked the plan. The committee will resume its hearings at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Boxhall is expected to continue on the stand to tell more fully of the events immediately preceding the collision.

Boxhall's Story.
Mr. Boxhall, answering questions, told of the position of himself and other officers during Sunday night, what they did, and incidents of the night up to the time the Titanic struck the iceberg. He was on deck and approaching the bridge when she struck. The impact was so slight, he said, he did not think it serious. The senior officer, whom he met, told him the ship had struck an iceberg.

Boxhall went to the bridge, where he found the first officer, Mr. Murdock, the sixth officer, Mr. Moody, and Captain Smith.
Boxhall said the captain asked what was the trouble and the first officer replied they had struck an iceberg and added that he had borne to starboard and reversed his engines full speed after ordering the closing of water tight doors.
Boxhall said he could see the iceberg dimly and that it was about 30 feet out of the water. He said he went down to the stateroom, inspected all the decks in the vicinity of where the ship had struck, found no traces of any damage and went directly to the bridge and so reported.

Ship Was Taking Water.

A carpenter later told him the ship was taking water and when he went down he found mail sacks floating in the main room. This he reported to the captain who ordered the life boats readied. He then took word of the ship's position to the wireless operators. After that Boxhall went back to the life-boats where there were many men and women.
He said they had life-belts. "After that I was on the bridge most of the time sending out distress signals trying to attract the attention of boats aboard," he said. "I sent up distress rockets until I left the ship, to try to attract the attention of a ship directly ahead. I had seen her lights.
She seemed to be meeting us and was not far away. She got close enough, she seemed to me, to read our electric Morse signals. I told the captain. He stood with me much of the time trying to signal her. He told me to tell her in Morse rocket signals. 'Come at once, we are sinking.'
'Did any answer come?' asked the senator.

"I did not see them. But I saw men say they saw signals from that ship."
"How far away do you think that ship was?"
"Approximately five miles."
Boxhall said he did not know what ship it was.
"Have you learned anything about that ship since?"
"No, some people say she replied to our rockets and our signals, but I did not see it."

GATHERING UP DEAD BODIES

MANY VICTIMS OF TITANIC DIS-ASTER FOUND.

Those Identified Will be Brought to New York and Others Buried at Sea—Names of Prominent Men Not Yet in List Sent in by Searchers.

Hullfax, N. S., April 22.—The local agents of the White Star Line have received a wireless confirming the report that the cable ship Mackay-Bennett has recovered 50 bodies of the Titanic victims and now has them on board.

More Bodies Picked Up.
St. John's, N. F., April 22.—More bodies were picked up to day by the cable Steamer Mackay-Bennett, which is cruising near the spot where the White Star Line Titanic foundered last Monday morning, according to word that reached here to night. How many bodies have been recovered in addition to the 50 that have been taken aboard, has not been reported, nor has any information been obtained here as to the identification. The steamer will proceed to New York with the bodies as soon as her work has been completed.

List of Names.

New York, April 22.—The first list of names of bodies recovered from the Titanic disaster by the cable Steamer Mackay-Bennett was received here to night through wireless message to the White Star Line.
The list of 27 names contain none of several of the most prominent men who perished unless it be that of "George W. Widen," as sent by George D. Widenor of Philadelphia.
The original passenger list of the Titanic does not mention "Widen," which apparently establishes the identity of the body as that of Mr.
Widenor, son of P. A. B. Widenor, one of the directors of the White Star Line, who, together with his son, Harry, was lost.

The list as received at the White Star Line offices is as follows:

L. M. Hoffman.
Mrs. Alexander Robbins.
William H. Harbeck.
Malcolm Johnson.
A. J. Halvorsen.
H. W. Ashe.
Leslie Williams.
A. H. Bayter.
Jerry Monroe.
Frederick Sutton.
J. S. Gill.
Ernest B. Tomlin.
George Rosenshire.
N. Marrot.
John H. Chapman.
W. Colbine.
H. Greenberg.
Simon Sother.
N. Colas Rother.
George W. Widen.
Ramon Artagaveytia.
Nihil Schedig.
Steward No. 76.
Yosie Drazenoui.
R. B. Att.
Leslie E. Gillinski.

The wireless message, after listing the names concluded:
"All preserved," presumably referring to the condition of the bodies.

Spelling in Doubt.

The White Star officials studied without success in interpreting the meaning of some of the spellings, and came to the conclusion that many of them were badly garbled because of the fact that the list had been relayed to the cable ship via the steamer LaConia to the Cape Race wireless station and was sent by cable to New York. Telegraph operators acquainted with both the Morse and Continental code specu-lated as to whether the names of Major Archibald Butt and Col.
John Jacob Astor were intended in two instances, but they could come to no decision that appeared trustworthy in such a case.

In the list as it came the following combination appeared: "Nihil Schedig R. B. Att," which operators believed might have been intended to be Major Archibald Butt's name. Similar speculation over the name N. Colas Rother, a name which the White Star Line could not account for, and which telegraph operators thought might be Col. Astor. The White Star Line despatched a message in an effort to clear up such questionable interpretations.

Fifty-three Bodies.

Hullfax, April 22.—Late reports here indicate that before darkness fell to night the cable Steamer Mackay-Bennett had recovered the bodies of 53 victims of the Titanic disaster. How many of these have been identified is not clear, but that some have not been made was made certain when the Mackay-Bennett sent a wireless saying that bodies not embalmed would be buried at sea to night.

The intention of Mackay-Bennett was to bring back such bodies as were identifiable or identifiable, while unknown bodies would be returned to the sea. The cable ship Mina said to night to search for the deed. She will establish wireless communication with the Mackay-Bennett at the first practicable moment and endeavor to relay all important information to the shore.

CHILDREN BURNED.

Winnipeg, Man., April 22.—Three children of Robert Adamson, and John Ruhlman, his farm hand, were killed to death Sunday when his home near Shellbrook was destroyed by fire. The house caught fire while Adamson was at work in a barn.
Mrs. Adamson escaped with a baby in her arms.

ANSWER MADE BY CAMPBELL

KANSAS CONGRESSMAN OBJECTS TO BEING ABUSED.

Made Spirited Personal Attack Upon Roosevelt in House Monday—Assails Every Public Man Who Disagrees With Him on Any Question.

Washington, April 22.—In the house of Representatives to day, Representative Philip P. Campbell, Republican, of Kansas, made a spirited personal attack upon Col.
Theodore Roosevelt. He declared that the latter had been going about the country for three weeks lying him (Campbell) before "the American public, because he had likened Col. Roosevelt's recall of judicial decisions to 'an appeal to the bleachers from the decision of the umpire.'"

"Colonel Roosevelt has been holding himself up to the people as the paragon of political virtue," said Mr. Campbell. "He has assailed every man who ventured to disagree with him on any question.
He brands every man as an infamous scoundrel whom he cannot hash into agreeing with him."

"I have been told that I was taking this morning in assuming to take the colonel on after he had viciously attacked me in my own state. If I did not do so, I would despise myself, my political friends would despise me and my political foes would despise me. Mr. Campbell demanded of Col. Roosevelt whether or not the latter had sent a note to the department of justice asking that steps toward the prosecution of the Harvester Trust be suspended, and whether or not he had 'in the night' sent a private conference with the heads of the steel corporation and the Tennessee Coal and Iron company agreed that they as such be united into one corporation."

The Democratic side of the house applauded Mr. Campbell, but the Republican listened without demonstration, except when he said that President Taft had "made a fool of himself." "Why all this fuss?" asked Mr. Campbell, referring to Col. Roosevelt's addresses. "Why is this respective candidate for the presidency for a third term nomination fanning the passions of the people into a fury throughout the length and breadth of the land? What is his wrong? What has happened in the last four years? Only one thing—the colonel is not president of the United States."

Mr. Campbell said that four years ago Mr. Roosevelt had convinced the country that Mr. Taft was "the best fitted man for the presidency" and he added that the president had verified the promises made for him by Colonel Roosevelt.
"Has it offended the colonel that some of his particular friends have been hauled into the court by order of the president?" he asked. "Did it offend the colonel that a suit was instituted against the steel corporation and the harvester trust?
What is the trouble? It is an ambition, thirst for power, by the greatest politician since Julius Caesar. Col. Roosevelt has all the ambitions of Caesar."

"He tyrannizes over everybody to day who does not agree with him. He would wipe any man off the political map who disagrees with him. Because I am named, without mentioning his name, to disagree with the astounding proposition that he made, he has not ceased in assailing me for three or four weeks."

SIXTY-SIX IS NUMBER OF DEAD

TWO HUNDRED INJURED AND PROPERTY DAMAGE HEAVY.

Southwestern Illinois Swept by Disastrous Storm—Village of Bush in Williamson County Suffered Heaviest—Fifteen Killed in That Village.

Chicago, April 22.—Latest figures regarding the cyclone which swept over Illinois and Indiana Sunday evening show 66 dead, 157 injured and nearly 100 families in a destitute condition as a result of the storm. More than 100 houses were demolished and the property loss totaled several hundred thousand dollars.

The greatest damage was done at Bush, Willshire, Murphysboro, Campus, Freeman and Kankakee, Ill., and Morocco, Ind.

Governor Denen and General Dickson today arranged to extend state relief to the stricken districts in Illinois.

The dead and injured were distributed as follows:

Bush, Ill., 15 dead, 100 injured.
District east of Bush, 8 dead, 30 injured.
Marion, Ill., 17 dead (unconfirmed).
Willshire, Ill., 3 dead, 20 injured.
Murphysboro, Ill., 3 dead, 5 injured.
Campus, Ill., 2 dead, 1 injured.
Kankakee, Ill., 1 dead.
Freeman, Ill., 1 dead.
Morocco, Ind., 9 dead, 1 injured.
District near Morocco, 2 dead.
St. Louis, April 22.—Latest reports from the storm-swept territory of southwestern Illinois tonight tell of 32 dead, 200 injured and property damage, the extent of which has not yet been estimated.

Bush, a village of 600 in the northwestern corner of Williamson county, suffered heaviest. The two storms which wrought havoc in central and southern Illinois Sunday evening met at Bush at 6 o'clock, one coming from the northwest and the other from the southeast.

Fifteen persons were killed, three died of injuries and a hundred more are suffering injuries as the result of the storm. The two storms met at a velocity of 75 miles an hour and in a few minutes, Bush was in ruins.
The properties of the Western Coal company were destroyed, as was the postoffice, general department store, hotels, restaurants and forty dwellings. Thirty-five other dwellings were partially wrecked.

In addition to the dead and injured, 150 persons, fifteen persons are missing.

Thirteen persons—a family of eight and five boarders—sought refuge in a cistern. The house was blown over, covering the opening in the cistern, and the thirteen were not rescued until late today.

Traffic on the St. Louis, St. Louis and Benton divisions of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railroad was tied up for three days as a result of the wreckage of sixty freight cars on the main line near Bush.

The Killed at Bush.

Of the fifteen persons killed at Bush, eleven have been identified.
They are:
Mrs. Alex Williams.
Valentine Farmer.
J. W. Campbell, wife and six children.

Joe Wood.

J. W. Campbell was section foreman at Bush. With his wife and six children he was sitting in the section house when the storm demolished it, killing the occupants instantly.
One son, 16 years old, was in Benton when the storm broke and escaped injury.

Rescuers searching for bodies this afternoon found a wooden leg in the ruins. Further search in the immediate vicinity disclosed the body of Joe Wood, a miner and owner of the property.

Jack Humphrey, superintendent of the mine, suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries which are expected to cause his death.

The storm at Bush was accompanied by the usual freak incidents. A cow was evicted in the main street, carried 100 yards by the wind and landed safely on the railroad tracks.

To Prevent Looting.

Guards have been placed around the general store to prevent looting and the contents are being distributed to survivors.

A train load of injured were taken from Bush to Murphysboro, where three died. They have not been identified. Seventeen persons are reported dead at Marion, but the count has not been verified.

A two year old child was killed by the storm in Hamilton county, where the wind left a path of ruin forty yards wide.

Seven Lives Lost.

Kankakee, Ill., April 22.—Damage amounting to $500,000 resulted from Sunday evening's cyclone in this section of Illinois. Reports from Grant Park show that 44 residences and buildings were demolished there.
The list of dead and injured in Kankakee county, reported up to late hour to night is as follows:

The Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hulise of Reddick.
Miss Hulise and Miss Irene Hulise, daughters of Nelson Hulise.
Mrs. David Jay of Limestone township.
Charles Wilson, a Moccasin section hand.
Mrs. Robert Hawkins of Limestone
township.

The Injured.

August Blanke of Grant Park, taken to a Chicago hospital. Condition serious.

MAY BE ANOTHER EXTRA SESSION

LEGISLATION NEEDED TO RE-LIEVE LAND OWNERS.

Act Will Produce Unique Situation of a Session Within a Session—Legislature Due to Assemble Today After Recess of Several Weeks.

Springfield, Ill., April 22.—If Governor Denen calls another special session of the legislature tomorrow and it is expected tonight that he will, he will produce the unique situation of a session within a session.
Under an opinion by the attorney general, the governor cannot amend the call for the special session which recessed immediately after passing the preference primary bill and which will be resumed tomorrow.

The governor is of the opinion that emergency legislation is needed to relieve the land owners of a drainage district in St. Clair county and for this reason he probably will issue a call tomorrow for the assembly to convene for the special purpose of amending the defective drainage law. The original law provided for the election of trustees to hold office for a fixed term of years, but made no provisions for the election of their successors.

Without additional legislation the district must get along until the regular session next January without officials.

The calling of another special session will give to the members of both houses additional mileage and postage fees, amounting to about $5,000.

It is extremely doubtful if a quorum will be present in the house tomorrow. The Modern Woodmen assessment rate war, which found its way into the special session, has the introduction of a bill prohibiting the raising of fraternal insurance rates until the year 1915, furnishes the most important subject with which the house has to deal at this time. Woodmen representing both sides of the rate disagreement are upon the ground. The bill introduced by Representative Bonhouse of Uniontown, is on third reading in the house.

LONGEVITY RECORD.

Princeton, Ill., April 22.—The death of Samuel Cook at Silverton, Ore., it became known here today, was the first in a family group of four brothers, who have a record for longevity. Their ages totaled 343 years. Samuel was 84; his brother, H. C. Cook of Princeton, Ill., is 91; Joseph of Redkey, Cal., is 86, and
C. H. of Princeton, is 82. The family, which is of Puritan stock, is descended from Francis Cook, who came to the United States in the ship Mayflower. The father of these brothers was a cousin of Jay Cook, the noted banker.

HARVESTER CASE.

Washington, April 22.—For the second time this session the senate adopted a resolution calling upon the attorney general to forward to it the correspondence bearing upon the reorganization of the international harvester company. The attorney general declined to comply with the first resolution. The measure adopted to day, presented by Senator Overman of North Carolina, is more imperative. It instructs the official to comply.

CAMPED IN MEXICO.

Major Burnham Has Force to Protect Interests of Americans.

Los Angeles, April 22.—The Evening Express printed a story today based on what it claimed was unimpeachable authority, that Major Frederick W. Burnham, the former South African scout and confidant of millions of mining promoters of the United States, was now encamped with 500 fully armed and equipped men on the banks of the Yaqui river in Sonora, Mexico, ready for any emergency.

Major Burnham's purpose, the story said, was primarily that of guarding the mining and other property in Mexico owned by John Hays Hammond, J. P. Morgan, the Gug-genheims and others, in whose interests he had made many trips into Mexico.

The men's ammunition, guns and machine guns, it was stated, had been smuggled across the boundary near El Paso.

CALL TEMPORARY HALT IN STRIKE

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MAY BRING PEACE.

Engineers and Railway Managers May Accept "Friendly Offices" of Mediation Made by Federal Officials—Action Will be Taken Today.

New York, April 22.—The tender of the "friendly offices" of representatives of the federal government called at least a temporary halt tonight to a strike of railroad engineers in all the territory east of Chicago and north of the Potomac river, in which it is estimated that 52 per cent of the railway traffic of the entire country is handled.

The mediation of federal officials came immediately after the refusal of the managers of fifty railroads concerned to concede the engineers' demands for an 18 per cent increase in wages, when Chief Warren S.
Stone placed the proposition before the engineers' committee with the recommendation that it be accepted.
For this purpose, he immediately called the committee together for an executive session. At this meeting the committee voted to accept the offer of mediation made by Messrs.
Knapp and Neill. It was decided, however, not to make the formal announcement of this action until tomorrow.

Chairman Stuart of the railroad committee received an identical letter from Messrs. Knapp and Neill but would not comment on what mediation the railroads would take as to the tender of the mediation. He immediately ordered a meeting of the committee tomorrow, however, to consider the proposal.

In this manner the crisis rested tonight, still regarded by many observers as critical, but by others as promising a period of adjustment.
Commissioner Neill, will join the
with the outlook for mediation, but did not outline in just what way he expected to carry it out if both parties were conciliatory. His colleague, Justice Knapp, left for Washington this evening with the intention, it is understood, of returning here tomorrow to take up the replies of the parties in controversy.

Practical help of three of the railroads in the territory roughly described as east of Chicago and north of the Potomac river, is included in the list.

It is declared by Leader Stone that 24,000 men are involved. Of these 25,700 are members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and about 6,500 are in the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engine men, who the engineers declared, will join the strike. The rest are non-union men who, Chief Stone said, have joined in the strike vote passed by the brotherhood.

The committee of general managers of the railroads at their conference with the engineers announced that the demands if granted would add to their payrolls $7,553,000 a year, or an increase of 17.63 per cent, and that it would be tantamount to placing a lien of $188,844,000 on the properties which would have preference over the first mortgage bonds and lessen the ability of the roads to make additional improvements and install additional safe guards.

en to Chicago Heights. Believed to be fatally injured.

Five other members of the Blanke family seriously injured.

also one of Curtis Co. employees.

Crowds have menaced the trains which brought in the non-Zionist work people. The use of tobacco by the non-Zionist operatives is said to be at the bottom of the antagonism.

LEPROSY CASE.

Centerville, Iowa, April 22.—Herman Hirschfeld of Bay City, Mich., held here as a leprosy suspect by order of the Michigan state board of health, to night said he would spend $100,000 in efforts to prevent authorities sending him to a leper colony.

Mrs. Hirschfeld's day telegraphed her husband's action that she would accompany him if he is forced to join such a colony. Hirschfeld will remain here until the Iowa and Michigan health officials have decided the question of his commitment to a leper colony.

William Yokish of Arenzville was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

It contains no grease or acids, is cleanly to use and is true food for the skin, cleansing the pores and making the skin soft, white and beautiful. This remarkable preparation is being sold in Jacksonville by Armstrong's drug store at the low price of 25c for a liberal jar. Larger size, 50c and $1.00. If Hokara does not give satisfaction or do all that is claimed for it, you may return the empty jar to Armstrong's drug store and they will refund your money. If you have any skin trouble, you cannot spend 25c to better advantage than for a jar of Hokara.

PLAN TUBERCULOSIS DISPENSARY FOR CITY

Anti-Tuberculosis Society Will Provide Special Treatment for Consumptives—Miss Geneva Morrison to Be Visiting Nurse.

The Anti-Tuberculosis society of Jacksonville has completed all arrangements for the opening of a dispensary in this city. This will provide free and special treatment for consumptives and also the attention of a visiting nurse. Two rooms adjacent to the Associated Charities in the Unity building have been secured and will be properly equipped. On two days in the week, an hour each day will be given over to the examination of patients and the diagnosis of cases. Such dispensaries are conducted in many cities throughout the United States and have been most effective in preventing the spread of this dreaded disease, and no doubt Jacksonville will reap its benefits from this splendid movement instituted by the local society. The dispensary will be conducted for a period of three months and if the work accomplished in that time merits its continuance, it will become an established institution. In some cities the work done by the dispensary has been of such volume that sanitariums have been established.

Miss Geneva Morrison will be the visiting nurse in connection with the dispensary. She will go the latter part of this week to Springfield to spend two weeks at the dispensary there, in special training.

Purpose of Institution.

The dispensary will be opened about May 15 and will provide for the following:

1. Examination of indigent tuberculosis cases and those presenting suspicious evidence of the disease.
2. Thorough physical examination of all comers, with bacteriological analysis of the sputum, and the preservation of a detailed record of the family history, present illness, occupation, residence and environment.
3. Facilities for imparting of competent instruction to patients, and for inspection of dwellings, personal advice and circular information.
4. Opportunity for the inclusion of the case in a list of those to be observed continuously by the visiting nurse.
5. The proper classification of the individuals and the recognition of their peculiar needs and requirements.
6. The extension of material aid, when necessary, in the way of gratuitous advice, treatment, sputum cups, disinfectants, etc., and proper mode of living at home.
7. Making note of charitable needs and referring same to Associated Charities.
8. Examination of families where tuberculosis is present.
9. Offering of advice to relatives and relatives upon matters pertaining to prevention of tuberculosis or consumption.
10. The instigation of proper treatment for the relief and cure.
11. Discovery of centers of infection in the community.

Officers of Society.

The society will also endeavor to have every house visited by a consumptive fumigated; to call the attention of the public to conditions as they really exist in the localities and to extend the work to the entire county.

The officers of the Anti-Tuberculosis society, under whose auspices the dispensary is being established, are:

President—Dr. T. O. Hardesty.
First vice president—Mrs. F. J. Heintz.
Second vice president—Dr. R. O. Post.
Third vice president—Supt. W. A. Furr.
Secretary—Dr. C. E. Cole.
Treasurer—E. E. Crabtree.
Executive board—Dr. T. O. Hardesty, Dr. C. E. Cole, A. C. Metcalf, Dr. Grace Dewey, Mrs. A. L. Adams, Mrs. C. E. Black and Mrs. F. J. Heintz.

WAS PAINFULLY INJURED.

Nellie Woods, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Woods of East State street, met with a very painful accident Monday morning. The little girl was in the laundry room and while the wringer was being used she caught the thumb of her right hand in one of the cogs. The entire nail was ground off and the end of the finger lacerated. Dr. F. A. Norris was summoned and gave the necessary medical attention.

WILL VISIT IN GERMANY.

Miss Sophie Kerchoff left last Saturday for New York City and on the 27th will sail over the Hamburg-American line for Boenicke, Germany, where she will visit for three months with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. Andrew of Elgin, Ill., suffered with severe backache, headache and kidney trouble when she heard of Foley Kidney Pills and began taking them. She says: "The first bottle made such a marked improvement that I immediately ordered more and am now entirely well and can honestly recommend them." City Drug Store, J. A. Obermeyer.

COFFEE

Coffee Won't Hurt you

If you get the right coffee. The trouble is that under present conditions of the coffee market it is a temptation to dealers to cheapen the QUALITY in order to still give the public an apparently "cheap" price.

There is no coffee that will give you the satisfaction that Robert's Perfectly Blended Coffee will. There is no coffee that will go farther and be more economical in the end, because even with our No. 1 Blend at 45 cents per pound costs you less than a cent a cup, and you drink the best coffee grown.

A LARGE CONTRACT.

What Coover & Shreve Want Every Person in Jacksonville to Do.

When Coover & Shreve, the enterprising druggists, first offered a package of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price, and guaranteed to return the money if it did not cure, they thought it probable from their experience with other medicines for these diseases that they would have a good many packages returned. But although they have sold hundreds of bottles, not one has been brought back.

To those suffering with dizziness, headache, poor digestion, constipation and straining, Dr. Howard's specific offers quick relief. It is an invaluable boon to all who feel uncomfortable after eating, and is today the popular dinner pill in all the large cities.

Material is a good grade of tape edge American taffeta; is mounted with opera shaped mission handles in assorted shapes. To acquaint you men with this new umbrella we are offering them at the introductory price of 98c.

It's risky business to leave the house during this month without an umbrella. April showers come up quickly: Prepare yourself with one of these 98c umbrellas and you will be protected at small expense. There is nothing cheap about them but the price.

The umbrella for women is a 26 inch, the top being made of genuine Crossweave, a silky tape edge material of exceptionally durable quality. A material which now has many imitations. They are ornamented with military tassels, made with silver and gilt rings, buttons and caps to match trimming on the handles. The handles come in a great variety of attractive styles in black and brown lizard, hand-carved ebony, fancy shaped mission, some plain, some inlaid, others applied with unique silver, gold plates and copperoid ornaments. The quality of the material and the style of the handles should suit the most exacting—to say nothing of the low price, 98c, which heretofore barely covered the cost of the umbrella without the handle.

THE CITY COUNCIL

Resolution Passed Taking Legal Notice of Defeat of Franchise—Pay Roll in Street Department Caused Acrimonious Discussion.

Monday morning the regular meeting of the city council was held, with the mayor, clerk and all members present. A petition was read from the Trades & Labor assembly asking that the city decline to use Purinton brick, as the company is listed as unfair. The vote of the council was unanimous, showing that the street railway franchise was defeated by a majority of 878; that the vote cast for members of the Board of Education was as follows: Dr. Clamitt, 670; Mr. Smith, 454; Mr. Roserson, 389. There was a good deal of discussion about the relationship of Ol Spaulding to the city, whether he is a foreman in the street department or a street superintendent and whether he shall be paid from the vehicle and poll tax fund or from the general fund. This discussion came after Mr. Newman had suggested that he was being interfered with in the management of the street department. The question of preparing another street railway franchise was mentioned.

The council was called to order by Mayor Davis at 10:15 o'clock and the minutes were read by Mr. Pyatt. A communication was read from W. A. Kirby, asking the council to pay for lumber used in building a new walk on Lincoln avenue. The communication was received and placed on file. The same action was taken relative to a communication from the Trades and Labor Assembly, asking the council not to use Purinton brick, made at Galesburg. The Purinton Co. is listed as unfair.

The vote cast at the recent city election was then canvassed. The results were found to be as follows: for the franchise, 387; against the franchise, 1271. Board of Education: Third ward, Dr. Clamitt, 670; for Walter Smith, 154; Fourth ward, for G. S. Roserson, 389; no other candidate.

A resolution prepared in accordance with the law showing the results of the vote was read and was passed by a unanimous vote. Mr. Knollenberg reported that the warrants for the January payroll were ready for all city employees, except the commissioners. Mr. Engel said he had been censured several times because a special officer had been detailed for the collection of wheel tax, people seeming to feel that a regular officer could do this work. Mr. Engel said further that he had nothing to do with the appointment and Mr. Knollenberg stated that the officer was for nothing else, but to collect the wheel tax and that the appointment had been made, through the clerk's office.

The talk about payrolls served as an opening for Mr. Newman to say that he was being interfered with in his department. He said that he occasionally saw things in other departments which did not just suit him, but he said nothing and he thought he should be permitted to tend to his own department of streets. He said that he had Ol Spaulding as a foreman of street work and was paying him $2.50 a day for services and the use of a horse and that Commissioner Knollenberg had refused to pay last month's bill. Mr. Newman said further that an effort had been made right along to get him to appoint a superintendent of streets and that he had refused to do so, and was thereby saving the city $900 a year.

Mr. Knollenberg replied that he had refused to pay the bill for last month because Mr. Spaulding had been working on sewers as well as streets and that he was authorized by law to pay from the vehicle license for no work except that done on the streets. He said that for sewer work Mr. Spaulding would have to be paid out of the general fund and wait for his money like other people are doing. Mr. Knollenberg charged further that Mr. Newman is misleading the public in stating that he is saving the city $900 a year through not having a street superintendent. He said that all that Spaulding needed to make him superintendent of streets was the title, that the salary of $2,500 a day or $75 a month was exactly the same as that paid to street commissioners or superintendents in years gone by.

Mr. Brown suggested that the matter was not important enough to require extended discussion and Mr. Engel said that it could evidently be taken care of if Mr. Newman in making out his payroll would separate work done on sewers from that done on the streets.

Mayor Davis said the law was clear about paying only for street work from the vehicle tax fund, but he agreed with Mr. Engel that the separation of items in the payroll would fix the trouble.

Mr. Newman wanted to know what would be done now about the street railway franchise matter and if it was the plan to let the company go ahead without any franchise. Mayor Davis and Mr. Knollenberg said the public didn't seem to want to grant a franchise, judging by the recent vote and the matter might as well be dropped for the present at least as no vote could be had legally for six months. Mr. Newman said he had an idea that the plan of some of the council would now be to drop the matter, but that he would like to see the company made to pay a license on cars and a tax on poles to yield $1,500 to $2,000 a year.

Mr. Brown suggested it might be well to prepare a franchise which suited the council and putting it up to the company later. On motion of Messrs. Engel and Brown it was decided to ask the city attorney about the status of the suits now pending against the railway company and held in abeyance until the franchise matter could be settled. It is entirely probable that at an early meeting the council will authorize the city attorney to proceed with the suits or will consider a new franchise with certain features in the defeated measure cut out.

Anna Held's Opinion of An Automobile

Seattle, Washington.

Gentlemen:

I cannot help but say that the big, luxurious Oakland car that took me so easily and comfortably around your beautiful boulevard is the easiest riding American built car I have seen. Of course, my foreign machines cost me thousands of dollars, but this is the first American built car that I ever thought their equal.

Respectfully yours,

Anna Held.

You will note by Miss Held's letter that she has had experience with foreign built cars which cost her thousands of dollars. You will also note carefully that the Oakland, the first American built car that she ever thought the equal of the high priced foreign made cars. This is one of the best tributes that has ever been paid the Oakland, and coming as it does from a woman who is in a position to judge of the comparative merits of high priced cars and medium cars, it should carry great weight.

GAVE DRESS REHEARSAL

The almost performance of Twelfth Night by the Illinois College Dramatic association at its final dress rehearsal given at the School for the Deaf last night was in every way artistic. The chapel was filled with an audience that knows good acting and the final applause that greeted the performers was inspiring. All the parts are in most capable hands and the rehearsal gave ample evidence of the painstaking care with which the production has been prepared. The auditors were confident that the performance tonight will surpass any amateur play ever given at the Grand.

LAFOLETTE'S COMMENT

San Francisco, April 22.—Senator Robert LaFollette commented here today on the recent Roosevelt victories in some of the western states. "It is a significant fact," he said, "that in practically every state where Roosevelt was the choice for presidential candidate, reactionary candidates for other offices were victorious with him over their known progressive opponents. In support of his theories, the senator instanced the defeat of Jonathan Bourne by Ben Selling in Oregon, the defeat in Nebraska of George W. Norris, progressive leader of the national house by Senator Norris Brown, the defeat in Illinois of Walter Clyde Jones by Governor Deneen and of Hugh Magill by Lawrence Y. Sherman."

Vernie T. Smelett and Charles Ator gave a dancing party to about ten couples Monday evening at the Peacock Inn. The evening was one of much pleasure.

RESIGNS AS PASTOR

Rev. N. W. Thornton of Orleans Will Become Field Secretary for William & Vashit College of Aledo.

Rev. Norbury W. Thornton, pastor of Pisach Presbyterian church at Orleans, has resigned to accept the position of field secretary for the William & Vashit college at Aledo, Ill. His resignation was received Sunday at the morning service.

Rev. Mr. Thornton has been the pastor at Orleans for the past two and a half years and during that time he and his family have gained a warm place in the hearts of the people. Under his ministry the church has been doing a most effective service and as been built up in many ways. The news of his departure is therefore received with much regret.

The family will remove to Monmouth to establish a permanent home. Rev. Mr. Thornton's last Sunday as pastor at Orleans will be May 5. His new duties require him to be at Aledo by the middle of May.

TO HELP CUMMINS

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 22.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt today released delegations from Page, Mills and Washington counties pledged to vote for national convention delegates favorable to his candidacy in the Republican state convention here Wednesday, according to announcement to night from both the Taft and Cummins managers. John H. Brier, Cummins' manager, said these delegations would be for the Iowa senator.

Governor B. F. Carroll, a Taft adherent, admitted this would be the result and characterized the action of Col. Roosevelt as an indication of the bitterness of his attitude toward President Taft.

The Page delegation was instructed for Roosevelt, while the Mills and Washington delegations were known to favor his candidacy, though not instructed.

Interest in the convention to be held Wednesday, centered to night in the contest for the permanent organization, with both the Taft and the Cummins adherents claiming control.

John T. Adams, manager of the Taft forces, announced that his faction would have seventy votes to spare in the election of the successor to Temporary Chairman C. M. Thomas, while John T. Brier, Senator Cummins' manager, declared with emphasis that there was absolutely no question that the convention would be organized for the Iowa candidate. The latter and no figures to give out, however.

Senator Cummins is expected here tomorrow afternoon, when, probably for the first time, it is said, an active candidate for the presidency will lend his presence to the supporters in a state convention in his home state, where the question of his personal endorsement is so closely contested.

The vanguard of the state Republican leaders arrived here today and to night headquarters had been opened for the chief figures before Wednesday's convention. The fifth Iowa congressional district will be held to morning night. Both Taft and Cummins adherents claim control.

FORGOTTEN.

It appears that Wireless Operator Phillips aboard the ill-fated steamer Titanic had been forgotten. And yet Phillips might well be termed hero of the wreck. Operator Phillips sent his assistant, Bride, from the tower to man a boat and stuck in the tower sending out "C. Q. D." signals until the boat sank, dying at his key.

How many lives would have been saved had it not been for Phillips? It is easily seen that all would have been lost.

There were many heroes on board the sinking ship. For unselfish devotion to duty, who matched the spirit of Phillips as he stuck to his post, send out into the blackness of the night, call for aid, not for himself, but for others?

INDIGESTION.

Causes Dizziness, Nervousness, Biliousness, Sick Headaches and Sleeplessness.

You know that most of the ailments named above come from an out of order stomach, which reaches the stomach it should digest and furnish nutritious matter to the blood.

If it doesn't digest, but lays heavily on your stomach, it has started to ferment.

When it ferments it sets loose in the stomach poisonous gases which irritate the great pneumogastric nerve that leads directly from the brain to the stomach.

That irritation causes heartburn, dizziness, nervousness, and other ailments.

HAD RELATIVES ABOARD TITANIC

Mrs. John B. Thayer of Philadelphia Who Passed Through Steamship Disaster, Is Cousin of Mrs. S. O. Barr and Mrs. N. W. Reid.

Mrs. John B. Thayer of Philadelphia, Pa., who was one of the rescued in the great Titanic disaster, is a cousin of Mrs. S. O. Barr and Mrs. N. W. Reid of this city. She and her son, John B. Jr., were miraculously saved from the wreck, but her husband, who was vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and one of the most prominent business men of the east, went to his death. Mrs. Thayer is a daughter of Mrs. J. B. Chapman, who before her marriage was Miss Markoe.

Monday Mrs. Reid received a letter from Mrs. Q. H. Chapin of Chicago, telling her that the Thayers were on the doomed vessel, but information had been received here prior to that through the Sunday morning paper, which contained the thrilling account of young Thayer's experience in the sea tragedy. As the young man struggled in the water after he had jumped from the big boat his hand touched the cork fender of an overturned life boat, and some men on top of it helped him up. The assistant wireless operator was right next to him, holding him on and kneeling in the water. There were about thirty men on the boat and all sang a hymn and said the Lord's Prayer. The wireless men raised their hopes by telling them that the Carpathia would be there in about three hours and they remained on the life boat until the great rescue ship arrived.

Brother Perished in Wreck. William Logan of this city has received a telegram stating that his brother, Watson Logan, was a victim of the Titanic disaster. Mr. Logan was a cook on the great steamer.

HAS ENDED LONG LIFE IN JACKSONVILLE

Samuel C. Brockman Died Monday Night—Came Here in 1896.

Samuel C. Brockman, aged 80 years, died Monday night at 12:30 o'clock at his residence, 611 Harding avenue, after an illness of a year's duration. About a year ago he became afflicted with laminitis of the arteries and although he was able to be around up until a week ago, he was quite feeble and required constant care. While preparing to retire last Wednesday evening he slipped and fell and received a severe injury to his hip, which was the direct cause of his death.

Samuel C. Brockman was born near Ashland, Ohio, Jan. 9, 1832. He came to Jacksonville Jan. 1, 1896, and has since resided in this city. For many years Mr. Brockman was a dry goods salesman and was one of the oldest salesmen in this part of the country. He began his career as a salesman in the store conducted by Benjamin S. Stevens, which was located on the southeast corner of the square and East State street and for a number of years was with Messrs. Felt & Bell, who conducted a dry goods business where Brady Bros. now stands. He was also with William Patterson who conducted the Trade Palace for some time and with Poffenberger & Co., whose store was located on the east side of the square. The last dry goods firm he was associated with was Montgomery & Deppes and several years ago he retired from active work.

Oct. 1, 1890, he was married to Mary E. Eakin, who together with the following survive him: One son, Wallace Brockman, one daughter, Miss Georgia Brockman, both of the city, and one step-son, William Brockman of Kansas City.

At the age of 15 Mr. Brockman was converted under the preaching of Rev. W. W. Hays and was baptized by Rev. James Cox of the Christian church. Soon after coming to this city Mr. Brockman was elected a deacon by the congregation of the Christian church, which then held its meetings on North Main street. During the pastorate of Enos Campbell in 1891 he was elected an elder and for more than forty years he faithfully served his church in that capacity. As his health permitted Mr. Brockman was a constant attendant at the services of his church and rarely missed a service. During his long and active life as a dry goods salesman and as a citizen of Jacksonville he made a wide circle of friends who learned to respect him for his sterling worth and who will learn of his death with sorrow.

Mr. Brockman had a gentle, kindly spirit, which gave him courage in the face of difficulties and he was in truth a good man, living after the manner of the Christ in whom he believed. He was a member of Hill lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of Rev. Clyde Darrie and interment will be made in Jacksonville cemetery.

BELLES LETTRES OPEN MEETING

Large Audience Hears Splendid Program by Woman's College Literary Organization.

The annual open meeting of the Belles Lettres society of the Woman's college was held in Music Hall, Monday evening, before an audience that filled every seat. For some time the young ladies have been working on the program and it will easily rank as one of the best ever given by the literary society. The open meeting is always for the purpose of giving the public an idea of the character of the work done during the year and long ago the society was recognized as an important factor in the rounding out of a full college education.

Miss Mary Ebert opened the program with a piano selection which she gave in a most talented manner and Miss Jeanette Powell found ample opportunity to display her platform ability in her oration on "The Philosophy of Tolstoi." Miss Helen Harrison delighted the audience with her clever original story, while the essay on "The Awakening of Russia" by Miss Mona Summers showed the writer had given the subject considerable thought. The musical number, including the vocal solo by Miss Helen Jones, which was given in good voice and the double trio, made a happy diversion of the program. Miss Mamie Severns, who was recently heard in her excellent senior recital, gave as a reading "The Kiss of Marjory." The society closed with the singing of the Belles Lettres song.

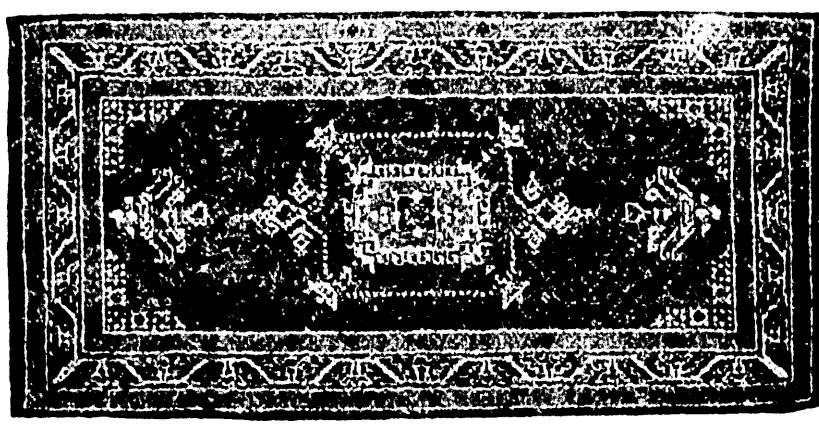

The following was the program: Piano solo—Walden-rauschen Concert Etude, No. 1, Liszt.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Evans, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

IS HELD FOR THE MURDER OF TWO

J. D. Muse Under Arrest in Omaha For Serious Crime—Is Badly Injured Himself.

The following from the Omaha World Herald is about J. D. Muse, a former resident of this city: Two negro women killed, one negro probably fatally shot and a fireman stabbed is the toll of one of the worst murder tragedies that has happened in Omaha for years. The dead:

Mrs. Eva Muse, 1822 Cumming St., left jugular vein severed. Mrs. Florence Banks or Mrs. Florence Diley, 1131 North Eighteenth street, right jugular vein severed.

As Officer Thorpe was on his way to report at the police box at Eighteenth and Cumming at 10:30 p. m., a negro came running toward him crying that there was shooting in the house at 1822 Cumming. Thorpe hurried across the street and saw that the house was on fire. Running into Dalzell's confectionery store he turned in a fire alarm. Then he ran to the house.

First he peered through the front door and saw J. D. Muse, a negro, standing in the hall, in the act of cutting a woman's throat. He could see another woman on the floor between the door and the negro.

"For God's sake call the station," he cried to those in the crowd and snatching his revolver from its holster went into the house.

The negro had heard the sounds on the porch and extinguished the lamp in the hall. As Thorpe entered the house the negro ran behind a corner of the hall and Thorpe heard him cry:

"I'll get you, too."

Then a bullet whistled past the officer's head. Thorpe shot in the direction of the flash and then hurried from the house. In the meantime the firemen had arrived and also Patrol Conductor Andy Fahey.

Assistant Chief Dineen and Captain Jaacks entered the house through a back window. As Jaacks climbed through the window someone knocked him down and another man ran up and stabbed him below the ear. Jaacks grappled with the man, calling desperately for help.

Officer Thorpe ran around the house, stepped through the window, turned on his flashlight and then shot the negro who was wrestling with Jaacks. Both men rolled over on the floor.

While Jaacks was fighting for his life with the man in the kitchen another struggle was going on between Assistant Chief Dineen and an unknown assailant in a bedroom which adjoined the kitchen. The man lunged at him, Dineen says, but missed him. Evidently frightened by the sound of the shot the unknown assailant ran into another room and that was the last seen of him.

Before the tragedy occurred in the kitchen, Officer Fahey arrested two negroes, who jumped through the back window and started to run. They gave their names at the station as Elmer C. Underwood, 1822 Cumming, and Philip White, 1822 Cumming. One of the men was only partially dressed and carried his clothes in his arms.

The fire was soon extinguished. It was discovered that the curtains in several of the rooms and the bed clothes of one bed had been fired.

The two negroes who were arrested, Muse and Jaacks, were taken to the station, where a number of physicians attended them. After Muse's wound had been dressed he was removed to St. Joseph's hospital. He is in a dangerous condition. Thorpe's bullet passed through his left cheek, plowed downward, breaking his lower jaw. Dineen's wound was dressed and he went home.

A corps of policemen and detectives soon arrived at the house and began an investigation. At a late hour this morning no other arrests had been made. The police are puzzled to know what became of the negro who struck Jaacks and made an ineffectual attempt to kill Dineen. Jaacks could identify neither of the negroes arrested as the man who knocked him down. The negroes say that when they entered the house the two women were downstairs and Muse was sitting in his room on the second floor. They say they did not know of the murder when they left the house and hurried from it merely to escape the fire.

Muse is well known to the police and only recently was arrested, it is said, for assaulting his wife. He was unable to give any explanation for his crime last night. Little is known of the Banks or Riley women, who were found in the house. The two women were sent to the Ohio undertaking establishment by Coroner Crosby.

J. D. Muse when he lived in Jacksonville was a sober and industrious man and bore an excellent reputation. He had no doubt fallen into bad company since leaving Jacksonville. Other members of the family are respected citizens of Jacksonville.

HOSPITALIER COMMANDERY.

To Have Annual Inspection Thursday Evening.

Members of Hospitalier Commandery are pleasantly looking forward to Thursday of this week when they are to be visited by Eminent Sir Knights Andrew J. Redmond of Oak Park, Eminent Junior Warden of the Grand Commandery of the state of Illinois, who has supervision of the sixth district in which the commandery of this city is located.

The officers of Hospitalier are looking forward to a fine attendance of Sir Knights on that occasion as the number belonging to Hospitalier is large and there are some within its jurisdiction who belong to other commanderies. On the occasion of Sir Knight Redmond's visit he will inspect all that pertains to the commandery, books, uniforms, paraphernalia and all that belongs to the local organization. After the inspection the Order of the Temple is to be conferred and a banquet will follow.

Hospitalier commandery is in a flourishing condition, having a large membership, many new ones having been received the past year. The older members will well remember the organization of Hospitalier commandery when Dr. P. G. Gillett was eminent commander, while among others of the old guard were Dr. H. W. Milligan, James S. Hurst, Charles Howard, Leonard W. Chambers, Calvin W. McLain and others long since gone to their reward. All will readily call to mind that sterling Mason, C. M. Morse, of railroad fame, a man who loved the order fondly and did so much to promote its welfare. He was at one time eminent commander of the state and always stood high in Masonic circles.

The triennial conclave and grand encampment of the United States is to be held this year in August in Denver and already Sir Knights of this city are preparing to attend. Sir Knight R. R. Buckthorpe is a member of the committee on arrangements for quarters for Jacksonville Sir Knights and wives or lady friends and has already secured entertainment for about 100 persons and all who expect to go will do well to consult him at an early date. It is the desire of the officials of Hospitalier to take a good sized delegation and a band so that Jacksonville and the commandery may be well represented. The local committee at Denver report that there are yet some desirable quarters to be had, but they are rapidly being taken.

EXCELLENT ADDRESS AT CENTENARY

Dr. E. H. Tralle of Hardin College Speaks at Sunday School Precinct Convention on "The Modern Sunday School."

Before a large audience Sunday afternoon in Centenary church Dr. E. H. Tralle of Hardin college, Mexico, Mo., delivered one of the best addresses on Sunday school work ever heard in this city. The occasion was the annual convention of the Jacksonville precinct. Carl H. Weber, precinct president, presided, and addresses were also made by J. H. Danskin, county president, who spoke of the county work in general and announced the convention to be held at Litterberry in June, and by George S. Beekman of Pisgah, who spoke on "Music in the Sunday school," illustrating his remarks with the singing of a number of songs. Mr. Beekman also led the singing of the afternoon. Splendid music was furnished by the Centenary Sunday school orchestra of nine pieces.

Dr. Tralle, the principal speaker of the afternoon, holds the chair of religious pedagogy in Hardin college and is the founder of the Agoda and Automa organized classes for young men and women, which have had a remarkable growth in the past year. He made four different addresses Sunday while in the city, in the morning speaking to the Sunday school of the First Baptist church and then preaching at the morning worship. In the evening he preached at Centenary church.

"The Twentieth Century Sunday School" was the subject Dr. Tralle discussed at the convention. The speaker took up each of the seven departments into which the strictly modern school is divided and showed the necessity of each department being thoroughly organized. He demonstrated clearly that the Sunday school of today is a far different force in the community than it was in years past. He showed also the vast possibilities of institutional work in the Sunday school. Dr. Tralle gave some very amusing examples and he said that they were very practical also as he himself had tried them. The address was excellent and was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience present.

The convention was considered one of the best, if not the very best ever held in the Jacksonville precinct.

Earl Williamson of St. Louis, Mrs. G. M. Richardson of Beardstown, Mrs. Carl Richardson of Girard and Henry Williamson of Concord are visiting relatives in the city. They are here on account of the illness of Miss Nettie Williamson, who underwent a serious operation at Dr. Day's hospital. Miss Williamson is doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Evaline G. Fox of Mantou spent Sunday with friends in the city.

NORTHMINSTER BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The regular birthday party for the ladies of Northminster church will be held this afternoon at 2:30 in the community rooms of the church. All members are cordially invited to be present. Those who had birthdays during March and April will be hostesses.

Mrs. George Pletch of Sarina, Ill., is visiting for a few days with friends in the city.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said: "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newbros Herpicleo destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as strictly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The absolute vegetable purity of S.S.S. has always been one of the strongest points in its favor, and is one of the principal reasons why it is the most widely known and universally used of all blood medicines. A great many of the so-called blood purifiers are really nothing more than strong mineral mixtures which act so unpleasantly and disastrously on the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels, that even if such treatment purified the blood, the condition in which the digestive system is left would often be more damaging to the health than the original trouble. Not so with S.S.S.—it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and at the same time is an absolutely safe and harmless remedy. It is made entirely of the healing and cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks, each of which is in daily use in some form by physicians in their practice. Years of work and research have proven S.S.S. to contain everything necessary to purify the blood and at the same time supply the system with the purest and best tonic effects. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles, and it leaves the system in perfect condition when it has purified the blood. Book containing much valuable information on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write to THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

DOCTORS ADVISE OPERATIONS

Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn.—"For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hem-orrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise my Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles."—Mrs.
EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md.—"My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hem-orrhages for four months. The doctors said an operation was necessary, but I dreaded it and decided to try Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work."—
Mrs. J. R. PICKING, 1260 Sargeant St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GAVE FINE PROGRAM.

The quartet choir of the Grace M.
E. church with their organist and director, gave an interesting program of sacred music at the chapel ser-day, April 21. The quartet members were Miss Stella Shuff, soprano; Miss Lena Hopper, alto; Mr. Loren Cannon, tenor, and Mr. Albert Strasser, them showed careful training and the entire program was thoroughly enjoyed by all the students and

MURRAYVILLE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Murrayville M. E. church conducted a very successful and interesting service Sunday morning in the public school house.

Mrs. J. A. Biddle presided and told about the object of the thank offering. The pastor, Rev. J. A.
Biddle, delivered an excellent short sermon on the subject and Mrs.
Josephine Spencer gave a fine talk on woman's work for women in foreign lands.

S. W. Nichols made an address on the subject of foreign missions as seen on the ground.

A World map was suspended and suitably colored to show the location of Christian peoples. A chart graphically showed how little is contributed to foreign missions in comparison with other objects. Chewing gum costs the nation several times as much as foreign missions, while millinery is a still greater expense; tobacco several times as great as millinery and liquor far in excess of tobacco. A thank offering of $21 was taken.

IN HONOR OF MISS GOEBEL.
Mrs. W. L. Robertson entertained at a china rush Saturday afternoon at her home on South Main street in honor of Miss Lena Goebel, who is to be married in May to Mr.
Thomas E. Miller of Chicago. There were twenty guests present.

During the afternoon the company was favored with two local selections by Miss Katharine Barr and Miss Carrie Dunlap rendered two violin numbers with Mrs. W.
G. Goebel as accompanist, which were greatly enjoyed by all.

The prize in the musical contest was won by Mrs. Virgil Robertson of Virginia. Miss Goebel was the recipient of many beautiful pieces of china.

The color scheme was yellow and white, and the refreshments were in keeping with the occasion.

BAD ACCIDENT.
Yesterday morning little Arthur Shumlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shumlin, residing on East Independence avenue, was playing in a lawn swing with another child and attempting to dismount when the machine was moving swiftly, caught his left leg at the ankle and broke it in two places. The little fellow is but five years old and the accident is a bad one for him, though he is doing as well as could be expected.

A BIG TURTLE.
Garris Robinson, salesman for Lee Albott and Perry C. Anderson, a student in the city, were at Nichols park roaming about the lake, when they saw a turtle which they managed to land and decapitate. The creature was about sixteen inches the short way and weighed some 35 pounds. It was indeed a large one to be caught in such a place.

CASES ARE LIGHT.
The persons suffering with small pox in the vicinity of Seelyville are in the family of Richard Vannier and his son, Henry and not his mother. As was stated in the Journal, the cases and that of the Conrady boys are all very light.

Foods made from Corn are specially wholesome—Corn bread, Corn muffins, Hominy, Karo syrup

THE wonderfully
nutritive elements
of corn have been praised by healthy American men and women for generations.

Karo has highly nutritious qualities such as are found in the old-time corn foods famed for their nourishment. It is made from the same hard, ripe kernels of Indian corn.

Karo is one of the most nutritive elements of the corn kernel turned into delicious syrup.

Grain Letter.
Chicago, April 22. Wheat—Over Sunday reports from all sections of winter wheat country full confidence in seasonal damage reports. Last week. No room for doubt remains that Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and other portions of the winter wheat growing sections have met with the most serious calamity in a generation. Examination of many fields shows wheat over large areas to be a solidly dead beyond chance of recovery. Plowing and discing is general over a large area. A new look as though even the extreme estimates of absolute area were too small. Some reports of improvement in conditions during the past two days are naturally coming in and will undoubtedly be magnified. July wheat has had more than 150 advance since we first noted the serious crop losses. The accounts of enormous profits over against the upward trend of prices. Unsatisfactory reports are now beginning to come from Nebraska and Kansas; should these two mainstays of the crop be damaged, the wheat grower will have met with a catastrophe unequalled in the country history. Probably two-thirds of a normal crop is the extreme limit of a hopeful view. Spring wheat, for which fall plowing was not extensive is going into the ground without thorough preparation and should it suffer to any extent record breaking high prices are probable this summer. We feel that conservative investments in July and September deliveries properly protected will pay well.

Corn—Under pressure. As a result to wet weather the past days, a promise to put much wheat and oats ground into corn southern western country offerings are more liberal and markets in that direction show an easier tendency. High prices and the trend of downward trend are causing country holders to make additional efforts to market. Dampening shipping heavily. No hope of help from abroad. We are believers in corn values and look for a selling market. For the present sales of July on hard spots will probably pay well.

Oats—Higher out of weather which is becoming a sensational bullish factor on September and July. Seeding has been so delayed and the crop is now a backward that a short acreage and a late harvest are certain. Very little abandoned wheat land will go into oats and a great deal of oat land will be planted to corn. Heavy consumption and winter has drained off supplies and the old crop will be exhausted or nearly so before new crops are available. We believe the late harvest and decreased acreage will result in materially higher level for July and September. We feel that these deliveries caught at present prices and protected with adequate funds will be profitable.

Provisions—A heavy run of hogs and much realizing by related hogs led to an easier market. The situation is still strong, but curtailed consumption and an overworked market should bring about opportunities to invest at a lower level.

TITANIC THEME IN CITY CHURCHES

MINISTERS COMMENT ON DISASTER WHICH HAS SADDENED THE WORLD.

Lessons for the Living are Pointed Out From the Catastrophe at Sea

Many pastors of the city took occasion Sunday morning to comment upon and draw lessons from the great disaster, the sinking of the Titanic, a catastrophe of such awfulness that the heart of all the world was touched. It was a great theme, and the impression was made upon hundreds of those who attended Sunday services.

WESTMINSTER.

At Westminster church Rev. L. H. Davis Sunday morning took two texts (Isaiah 40:3, 4) "The sea is His and He Made It," and (Isaiah 10:26, 27) "There Go the Ships," and his sermon theme was "The Loss of the Titanic and Its Lessons." It was a sermon of wonderful strength.

"These two texts bring to our mind this morning the terrible disaster of the past week. It is possible that we knew no one on the ill-fated Titanic but it is enough to know that 1,601 souls went down in the deep in the darkness of the night. Not merely the sea-coast cities but the entire country and the whole civilized world have been not merely shocked but stunned by the frightful, needless loss of life. In one way, it is a familiar story. We become accustomed to the loss of human life and terrible suffering, so that we soon forget save as we are touched by the loss of some life dear to us. The sufferings and deaths in Russia the past months—from famine—the loss in China from flood and pestilence, the deaths resulting from the plague in India and the awful slaughter from Mount Pelee a few years since make us somewhat callous to such scenes and experiences. The loss this past week was so great, so unexpected, so overwhelming, that it causes even the thoughtless and the selfish to stop and think. Entire families were blotted out in a few moments, men prominent in the world's thought, life and work went down and many of those surviving will be nervous wrecks, if not mental wrecks, to the end of life. The experience will demand far more stringent laws governing ocean travel and far better equipment in case of peril, and will bring men back to sane and safe ways of travel but it carries with it great moral lessons, which we should take to our hearts."

The minister went on to say that life is a movement and that each individual is a ship upon the sea of life. As ships and boats are seen upon the water the natural question is, whether bound, to what harbor? So with individuals, what is our desired haven, in the tremendous voyage of life? This is the question we face this morning as we recall the dreadful tragedy of the week. Here we are—you and I on the sea of life—here we are with the other countless vessels, small and large, some sailing on the surface, other plowing through the depths of life. But let me ask you, whither bound, what harbor? "Whither bound is the prow of your life pointed toward?"

Then it was shown that life is far more than a fact, that it is a movement begun and continued in time but reaching on and out into the shoreless sea of eternity. Men are moving slowly or swiftly to a definite certain unseen goal, a definite unseen end. Life is not only a movement but it is a movement in the midst of great perils. We are so apt to think of the perils of the sea of life. There is the peril of being over busy in life of thinking and planning only for today, of planning for three score and ten years, more or less, and leaving eternity unplanned for. Isn't it after all the great mystery of life that men as life moves on, with its work and scheme and activity, for the best for those things, live for them, die for them, things that mean nothing, absolutely nothing, indeed they never so much as think of them—when the ship is going down.

Life is a movement in the midst of great perils but it is a movement in the midst of great powers. On the sea of life there are infinitely greater powers at the disposal of man than are in sailing the ocean. Men can be in close touch with the Maker of the sea. Life is a movement on the sea of life, demanding oftentimes great sacrifices on behalf of others.

Terrible and appalling and measureless is the loss in life to the lives and homes of those who perished in the awful disaster is not without its compensating aspects, as to what it will mean for the protection of life in years to come on the sea but it will stand forth in history as one of those splendid moments in history when men stand forth in the regal nobility of his manhood. The closing minutes of the disaster revealed man at his best when strong men stood aside and let the women and the children take the places in the life boats. That was a scene men never will forget. That was the sheer, native, naked courage of the soul. It was the finest demonstration of what godlike fearlessness is, the divine spark in humanity, which makes God's creatures capable of great things. Something took place early last Monday morning, finer, greater, grander than you will find in all ancient history and will find today only, where the finer, richer, larger sentiments of the human heart enriched by the gospel, Christianity has wonderfully changed the human heart.

If some man last Monday night had offered his seat to you in one of the life boats and he had gone down, do you think, that you would ever forget your benefactor? Why then, why should you and I, why should men and women anywhere ever forget the Christ, who tasted death for every man? Why, why do not men everywhere turn, turn and welcome the Christ who gave His life for them? Isn't it, isn't it the mystery of mysteries?

AT BROOKLYN CHURCH.

"The Toll of the Seas." Before one of the largest audiences ever seen in Brooklyn church, Rev. H. S. Alkire Sunday night preached on the timely theme, "The Toll of the Seas," drawing some powerful lessons from the great Titanic disaster. Mrs. A. M. Roberts sang two beautiful and appropriate solos.

"Modern skill boasted it had bridged the sea," the minister said, "and that now man would triumphantly ride the wild steeds of the deep. Less than a fortnight since the veteran admiral of the White Star line said, 'I cannot conceive now any vital disaster can overtake the Titanic. Modern skill in ship building has gone far beyond that.' To night Captain Smith lies 2,000 fathoms deep beneath the chill waters of the Atlantic, and his proud ship is now his solemn apoplexy. Our Anglo-Saxon skill has sent some fatal boats against formidable foes, but when old mother Ocean floated her great ship down from the frozen north, it took but a single blow from one of her wicked vessels to wipe from the face of the sea forever the proudest Leviathan that man ever sailed. At a single charge she sent 1,600 precious lives to a watery grave. To night the strange blind denizens of the deep are rejoicing that the toll of the sea has been taken."

"Out of this awful disaster we learn that God is still in supreme control. Man may rest secure in the work of his hands, but God still stands within the shadow keeping watch above His own. Where was God when the music swelled the sacred chorus 'Nearer, My God, to Thee,' while the wounded vessel revolved around the lips of the mouth of the great sea that was soon to swallow it? Where was God when the 700 were drifting the dark hours away as they fought death over the tomb of 1,600 comrades? God was not consulted. The perils had the right of way. Unmolested they have floated on for centuries and man has never had to bear them. But now he has become bold, he accepted their deadly challenge and now the awful toll has been paid. Man has much to learn. He has not solved the sea. He seems not to have learned the simple law of motion, which schools have taught for centuries. But the lesson has been forever learned."

CO-REGGREGATIONAL

At the Co-reggregational church Rev. R. O. Post spoke to a good sized audience on the one theme, which is encompassing such universal attention. Amid all the darkness and horror, amid all the sadness and loss of life and treasure we still may see a silver lining to this very dark cloud.

He furnished examples of grand heroism on the part of officers and passengers who long be remembered. In all the excitement Capt. Smith was calm and collected. Major Butt was the hero when he courageously aided women to escape in the boats, while he went to a watery grave. Wireless Operator Phillips stood by his instrument till it was of no more use and then sank beneath the waves.

Of course there was blame somewhere, but who was at fault most will be very hard to determine. The company feels it must make a record for luxury and speed else it will not get the business it desires; the men in command of the ship feel the pressure from officials and they are naturally impelled to take risks; that they may accomplish the desired end and so it will be hard to say who is wholly at fault for the terrible calamity.

There is comfort though even in the hour of trial, for God will so work that good will come out of this great evil. The examples of heroism, the added means that will be adopted for safety hereafter, the examples of self denial, all stand out in grand relief and back of it all and greatest of all is the fact that God rules and will bring good out of what seems to be a great evil were it not for this fact this world would be dark indeed, but we know that our Redeemer liveth and will bring good out of all evil.

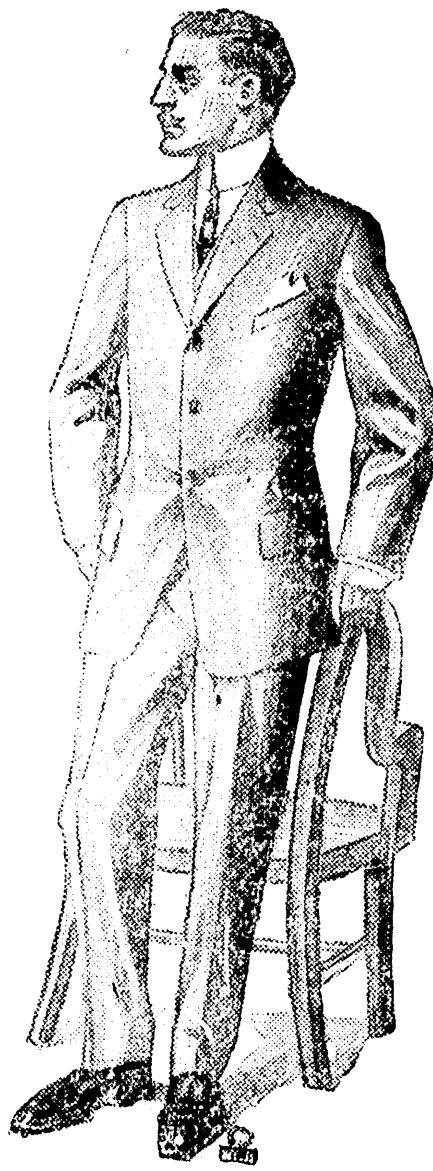

When we look at it in this light, it is comprehensible, but otherwise we cannot understand it. By labor and sacrifice the Creator works to accomplish His great ends and so we may be sure a Father's hand will lead us and even in this hour of sadness we may see a loving hand guiding us.

NORTHMINSTER.

At the evening service at Northminster church Sunday, Rev. Walter E. Spoonst preached on the great Titanic disaster and was heard with interest by a very large audience. Choosing for his text (Psalm 107:23-24) "They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters, these see the works of the Lord and His wonders in the deep." Mr. Spoonst first gave a description of the greatest marine disaster in history, telling of the responsibility of those in charge of the vessel, the unprepared condition of the great ship for such a catastrophe, the unheeded warnings of other ships by those in authority, the mania for a record breaking trip and said that the passengers and some of the officers of the ship were spending the evening in seeking worldly pleasures. He laid the blame for the wreck on the managing director of the White Star line, J. Bruce Ismay.

In speaking of God's sovereignty over the sea he said that the force and fury of the storm are not blind, irresponsible, reckless things, not merely the outworking of natural laws, but of the Lawgiver, the great God, the Ruler of the sea. He said: "To regard God as the ruler of the sea is philosophic because it is thoroughly reasonable to attribute the cause of storms and rains to the Creator and Lord of nature, a Being of infinite wisdom and almighty power, scriptural because the Bible ascribes all the phenomena of nature to the agency of the Divine being and assuring because it is some satisfaction to know that the furious elements are not governed by blind laws or stony hearted fate, but by a wise and holy God." He spoke of man's power over the sea, how he uses it in his service, and how he can, to great extent control it even in its angry moods, but when he reaches the limits of his power over the sea his weakness is complete

MAY ENTER MEET.

The twentieth interscholastic track meet of the Illinois Athletic association will be held in the athletic field of the University of Illinois May 18. Over one hundred schools have already signified their intentions of sending teams and the meet gives promise of being the most hotly contested for state honors yet held. There is a possibility that the Jacksonville high school may be represented. It all depends upon the showing the J. H. S. athletes make in the Western Illinois High School league to be held here May 3 and of the outcome of the meet to be held Saturday, May 11, at Springfield and Decatur at Springfield.

ADDRESSED STUDENTS

Dr. Tralle Appeals to J. H. S. Students to Do Their Best.

Dr. Edward Tralle, professor of education in the Howard college of Mexico, Mo., who made an address before the precinct Sunday school convention at Centenary M. E. church Sunday, gave the students of the high school a splendid talk Monday morning, at the regular chapel hour. Dr. Tralle made a plea for the students to do their very best. He said when he started to college he had only $4 in cash and $1,000 worth of brains. To this he added $10,000 worth of work and later made another addition of $1,000,000 worth of stick-to-it-iveness. He said that a young person could not get along without a host of friends, so he thought a million friends would be a good addition. The entire address was given in such a humorous vein that the students were kept in a continual uproar during its delivery, and were forcibly impressed with the thoughts presented.

H. K. Olmsted, 10 Chestnut St., Galesburg, Ill., says: "I suffered with pains over my hips and in my back, which in cold weather were almost unbearable. My bladder was inflamed and made me very uncomfortable. Soon after I started to take Foley Kidney Pills I began to improve, until now I am again in perfect health and free from pain." GYPSIES AT CONCORD.

Dr. S. D. Anderson of Concord was in the city Monday and reported that the gypsies, who camped for four days in this city, passed through Concord Sunday and made themselves most obnoxious by their begging and fortune telling. He says that Arenville was informed that they were coming there and preparations had been made to see that they do not land in that city.

Benjamin Davenport of Alexander was in the city Monday.
